New Farm Bill Is Reported By Group In House

Rigid Supports Would Be Extended For Another Year

WASHINGTON, June 25 —UP— The House Agriculture committee Friday approved, 26 to 2, a new catch-all farm bill which would scuttle President Eisenhower's flexible price support plan in favor of a one-year extension of present rigid supports.

Just before approving the bill, however, the committee sought to make it more acceptable to the President by striking out provisions that would have extended rigid high supports on cotton and possibly corn for two years instead of one.

Committee chairman Clifford R. Hope (R-Kan.) predicted the House would approve the measure when it comes up for debate next Wednesday or Thursday. He said he had "no information" on whether Mr. Eisenhower might veto the measure.

Hope called the legislation "a very good bill. . .the best possible bill that could be secured at this time." He said "it does meet the needs of agriculture at this time."

Meantime, the Agriculture Department disclosed that administration leaders plan a last-ditch radio appeal for public support of Mr. Eisenhower's program early next week just before the scheduled showdown vote in the House.

It said Vice President Richard M. Nixon and Agriculture Secretary Ezra T. Benson will discuss the farm issue on the ABC radio network from 8:35 p.m. to 9 p.m. CST Monday night. Benson will follow up with an NBC radio appearance at 1:45 p.m. Tuesday.

As approved by the committee, the bill would provide for a one-year extension of 90 per cent of parity supports on wheat, peanuts, rice, cotton and corn. Tobacco, the sixth "basic" crop, would continue under rigid high supports in any event.

While the "catch-all" measure includes many of Mr. Eisenhower's farm recommendations, some farm state congressmen concede he probably will veto it if it reaches his desk in its present form. Whether a veto would stand up is uncertain.

Many farm state congressmen are reluctant to vote to cut price supports in an election year. The President has taken a "politics be damned" attitude toward the issue, however, arguing that he is concerned with the overall welfare of the farmer and the nation.

Nehru And Red China Premier In Conference

NEW DELHI, India, June 25 (AP)—Prime Minister Nehru of India and Premier Chou En-lai of neighboring Communist China met for more than three hours at tea today for an Asian-to-Asian talk on grave world problems. An Indian spokesman said afterward the meeting at Nehru's residence was "most friendly."

Despite his fair knowledge of English, Chou exchanged comments with Nehru in Chinese. Only an interpreter was present for the first formal talks of Chou's three-day visit in New Delhi.

There was no announcement on specific subjects covered but the Indian Foreign Office said beforehand Indochina and Korea would head the agenda. The conversations between Chou, leader of 500 million Chinese, and Nehru, leader of 350 million Indians, could foreshadow great changes in the history of Asia.

Across the world Prime Minister Churchill and President Eisenhower began talks in Washington aimed at wiping out misunderstandings between the two major powers of the anti-Communist world. Many believe Chou's decision to confer with Nehru here at the same time as the Churchill-Eisenhower meetings was no coincidence.

Tonight Nehru invited Chou to a private dinner following a reception at sprawling government house, residence of President Rajendra Prasad.

Wearing his usual spotless white jacket with a red rose in his buttonhole, Nehru drove to Palam airfield in the Indian capital's 100-degree heat to welcome Chou, who was clad in a plain black suit that set him apart both from his Indian host and his own grey uniformed Chinese entourage.

Ike And Winnie Begin Talks On Crucial Issues

WASHINGTON, June 25 —UP— President Eisenhower and Winston Churchill began their fateful unity talks Friday with a discussion on the stalled European Defense Community and the exchange of atomic energy information.

'GOOD OLD WINNIE' — British Prime Minister Winston Churchill responds with the "V for Victory" sign he made a trade mark during World War II as spectators at his arrival shout "Good Old Winnie." He appears in good health and spirit despite the two strokes he has suffered during the last four years. He's in Washington for a week end of talks with President Eisenhower in an effort to iron out Anglo-American differences. (AP Wirephoto)

The two chiefs of state plunged into a week-end round of conferences on the Anglo-American alliance within three hours after the 79-year-old British prime minister arrived here by plane at 6:55 a.m. CST.

The White House said they explored for more than two hours this afternoon "the mechanics" of exchanging more atomic information between the United States and Britain.

Press Secretary James C. Hagerty said they also took up the projected six-nation European Defense Community which France and Italy have failed to ratify. He gave no details of the discussions.

In their face-to-face White House meetings the President and Sir Winston hope to find the same common ground for stopping communism which they found for turning back Hitler's legions in World War II.

It was Churchill's seventh historic mission to Washington. With the Anglo - American alliance against communism badly split on some points, it was in many ways his most important visit.

Mr. Eisenhower and Churchill were together almost continuously from noon until 5 p.m., when the aging prime minister retired to the rose suite on the second floor of the White House for a long nap before dinner Friday night.

There are no set meetings for Saturday morning. The first engagement will be a White House lunch with 28 Republican and Democratic congressional leaders.

However, Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden, who accompanied

TANKER HELD — Nationalist China announced yesterday the tanker Tuapse, seized by her navy off Formosa Wednesday, is being held at the port of Kaohsiung (A). The ship was carrying oil to Shanghai (B) in violation of a UN embargo against such shipments, the Nationalists said. The announcement did not mention nationality of the ship, which is owned by Russia. (AP Wirephoto Map)

Nationalists In Formosa Holding Russian Tanker

TAIPEH, Formosa, June 25 (AP) — Nationalist China yesterday announced it had seized a Russian tanker because it was bound for "Communist bandit" Shanghai in defiance of the Nationalist blockade.

In a stiff note raising the threat of a clash on the Far East's troubled seas, Russia yesterday accused the U.S. Navy of seizing the 8,840-ton tanker Tuapse Wednesday 125 miles south of Formosa.

Russia threatened "appropriate measures for safeguarding" Soviet ships in this area, where the U.S. 7th Fleet guards Formosa from Red invasion and small Nationalist warships watch the coast. That could mean sending Soviet warships to guard Russian merchantmen.

The State Department in Washington was preparing a rejection of the Russian note.

An official Nationalist statement indicated the Russian ship might be confiscated, saying the matter was being "disposed of."

The Nationalists have confiscated the Polish tanker Praca on the grounds that Communist China was the real owner.

The same fate may await a second Polish ship, the freighter Gottwald.

The Russian tanker was taken under Nationalist warship escort to the southern port of Kaohsiung, where the Praca and the Gottwald are tied up.

4 Associates Named As Fixers In Graft-Ridden Income Tax Division

NEW YORK, June 25 (AP) — Four associates working out of a New York law firm were charged today with a top level plot to fix income tax cases and to block tax scandal investigations. The government called them "human vultures."

So solidly were they in with crooked revenue agents, it was alleged, that they learned about criminal tax investigations before even the persons being investigated knew of them. Then they sought these targets out as clients for a fix, the government contended.

"These defendants are charged with being big time fixers," said Asst. U. S. Atty. Alfred P. O'Hara at their arraignment. "These are not the minnows. They were the big fish."

Ten others were named coconspirators although not defendants —including Danial A. Bolich, former No. 2 man in the Internal Revenue Bureau, and Henry (The Dutchman) Grunewald, Washington's mysterious wire puller.

The federal indictment charges all 14 with conspiring to silence witnesses and block investigations into tax scandals by a Brooklyn federal grand jury and a House Ways and Means subcommittee.

O'Hara claimed some witnesses were induced to lie outright to investigators.

The four defendants also were accused of handling at least $160,000 in bribes to fix tax cases with internal revenue officials.

The money allegedly was used in tax cases against two New York firms, Pattullo Modes, Inc., a dress firm, and the Gotham Beef Co. officials of both firms were named coconspirators.

The four defendants are Samuel Schopick and Irving Davis, partners in a former New York law firm; Max Halperin, a lawyer reportedly associated with the firm at times; and Milton Hoffman, an accountant who allegedly worked out of the law firm as contact man in tax cases.

State Takes Over Probe Of Murder In Phenix City

PHENIX CITY, Ala., June 25 (AP)—Hard-boiled state authorities all but bypassed local officers in the A. L. Patterson murder investigation today and ordered a special grand jury empaneled to work with a newly appointed chief prosecutor.

Less than 24 hours after Acting Atty. Gen. Bernard Sykes barred Circuit Solicitor Arch Ferrell from any further investigation, Chief Justice Ed Livingston of the Alabama Supreme Court designated a special judge in place of Circuit Judge J. B. Hicks.

Livingston, in Montgomery, called a special session of Circuit Court to meet Wednesday to draw a new grand jury. He assigned Judge Walter B. Jones of Montgomery to preside. Hicks normally would call the jury.

Underscoring the state's determination to take full control of the investigation, criminal investigators from the state Department of Public Safety moved out of Sheriff Ralph Mathews' office and rented a building for temporary headquarters.

A radio transmitter was installed in the building for instant communication with patrol cars and the National Guard which has been on emergency duty since the anti-vice crusading Patterson was slain a week ago tonight. Patterson was Alabama's attorney general-nominee.

Sykes became acting attorney general after Atty. Gen. Si Garrett left the state Wednesday for treatment in a Galveston, Tex., hospital.

General Manager Of TVA Resigns Post

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—John Oliver announced today he is resigning as general manager of the Tennessee Valley Authority to accept a position with the Wheland Co. of Chattanooga.

The TVA board said Aubrey J. Wagner, assistant general manager, will succeed Oliver as general manager. Oliver's resignation is effective in the early fall "at the convenience of the board."

Oliver has been general manager of TVA for the last three years.

Wm. Remington Denied Parole

WASHINGTON, June 25 (AP) — William W. Remington, former Commerce Department economist who is serving a three-year prison term, has been denied a parole.

The Justice Department disclosed today that Remington's parole application was denied June 17.

Remington was convicted in New York Jan. 27, 1953 of lying when he denied giving secret government data to Elizabeth Bentley for transmission to Russia, and denying knowledge of a Young Communist League unit at Dartmouth College while a student there in the 1930's.

Remington, 36, became eligible to apply for parole April 14, a year after entering the federal penitentiary at Lewisburg, Pa.

Rebels Bomb Guatemala City In Air Thrust

Castillo Armas Heads Provisional New Government

TEGUCIGALPA, Honduras, June 25 (AP) — The creation of a provisional government by the anti-Communist Guatemalans, with headquarters at newly captured Chiquimula, 20 miles from the Honduran border, was announced officially by the "Liberation army" in a communique tonight.

The new government is headed by the leader of the revolution, Col. Carlos Castillo Armas.

The sixth communique put out by the rebel leaders said Chiquimula was seized this morning and "hundreds of citizens presented themselves to enlarge the ranks of our army" there.

It added that "the triumph of our forces was jubilantly celebrated by the civilian population which was happy to see themselves free of the Red claw."

Chiquimula, a town of 8,848 people, straddles the branch railway which links El Salvador with the main line connecting the east and west coasts by way of Guatemala City, the capital.

The makeup of the Cabinet will be announced probably tomorrow, it was said.

Just before the announcement of a provisional government, anti-Communist planes carried out what apparently was the heaviest bombing of the eight-day-old revolution—a revolution that has been marked by only sporadic clashes and many rival claims from both sides.

Dispatches from the Guatemalan capital said the National Palace, where leftist President Jacobo Arbenz Guzman was at work, was strafed and an army fort hit with bombs. The raid was carried out by two or three planes.

Eight Americans who crossed the Mexican frontier from Guatemala City, including a Boston newspaperman, meanwhile reported their belief that the rebels had the leftist regime "on the run."

The bombing attack on the capital, coupled with other air strikes at Zapaca and other points, led an authoritative source here to comment that, "The cold war is getting hot."

The Boston reporter said he had seen 400 wounded government troops en route to the capital city.

Earlier, the clandestine "Liberation radio" had announced the capture of Zacapa as well as Chi-

Churchill Takes No Brandy During Flight To U. S.

WASHINGTON, June 25 (AP)—The air stewardess who helped shepherd Sir Winston Churchill to America said today she hates to destroy any legends but the fact is that Churchill touched "not a drop of brandy" on the transocean hop.

As if sensing that newsmen were skeptical, pretty Isabel Carson of London beckoned to chief steward Jack Bury for support.

"By jings, that's right," said Bury. "I've been with him on three flights and I have yet to see him sniff a brandy."

Churchill has long been popularly associated with this beverage, and the word that he is tapering off at 79 prompted reporters to inquire whether he is becoming a teetotaller.

"Oh, heavens no!" exclaimed Miss Carson, rolling her eyes behind her aviation sunglasses. "He takes a spot of port after dinner."

"Of course," Bury chimed in. "He uses whatever wine the table calls for. He's a connoisseur."

If, during his stay in Washington, he cares for something a bit stronger, it will be right at hand. Even before he arrived at the White House for his talks with President Eisenhower a case of cognac arrived for him—a gift from the bottlers who apparently had not heard the tidings about his attitude toward brandy.

But if Miss Carson and Bury aimed a blow at one notion about Churchill's habits they gave another one a big boost.

"Cigars? He smoked them incessantly from London to Gander, to Washington," said Miss Carson with a ladylike cough.

Showdown Fight On Bills To Restrict Gambling Is Brewing In Legislature

BATON ROUGE, June 25 (AP) —Legislation up for action in the Louisiana Legislature could give a clear view of the lawmakers views on gambling, slot machines and state police Supt. Francis Grevemberg, but today the picture is cloudy.

With the backing of Revenue Collector Rufus Fontenot, the House passed a bill to refund $122,000 in slot machine taxes to owners whose machines were smashed by state police in Grevemberg's crackdown on all gambling in Louisiana.

The measure awaits Senate action.

Fontenot contends the state acted unfairly in collecting the tax of $100 per machine and then racking down on their operation.

In a prepared statement, Fontenot said today:

"Had I known the superintendent of state police was going to remove the machines at any time during 1953, I most certainly would not have collected the tax.

"Why he waited until June 25, 1953, to take them out I do not know, but I do know that the timing could not have been worse. The federal tax of $250 per machine, payable in advance, was due on July 1, 1953, and the owners of the machines paid voluntarily to the federal government, not knowing that the machines would be taken out, $396,000 in that 25-day period.

"Also," Fontenot said, "If the machines were so vicious on July 25, 1952, they were equally as vicious way back in May, 1952, when the state superintendent of police took office.

"Why didn't he inform me at the beginning of 1953 that he intended to take them out?"

Fontenot said he did not believe it was "fair or just" to have a law requiring him to collect the tax, "and another law that another state agency should outlaw them after, in good faith, the taxpayers had paid the tax due."

Asked for comment, Grevemberg said:

"It is my intention to continue to enforce state laws against gambling."

Grevemberg's crackdown on all gambling, even church bingo and charity raffles, has the backing of Gov. Robert Kennon. Permission from the governor is required for the state police to enter a parish or municipality for a gambling raid.

Up for House action early next week are Rep. John Jumonville's bill to outlaw night horse racing, aimed at Magnolia Park Harness Track scheduled to open September in Jefferson Parish, and Rep. Jesse McLain's resolution censuring Grevemberg.

Although it doesn't mention the state police superintendent by name, the resolution clearly refers to Grevemberg's floor fist fight with Senator Horace Wilkinson III on the Senate floor this week.

Wilkinson, termed a "known slot machine operator" by Grevemberg, and Grevemberg were discussing a bill passed by the House outlawing money prizes in newspaper contests. Each called the other a "liar" and bystanders said Wilkinson took a swing at the state police cheif. They were separated without a blow landing.

McLain is one of four representatives who joined earlier in the session in introducing a bill to restrict the wide ranging state police

2 More Officials Are Suspended In Housing Scandal

WASHINGTON, June 25—UP—Two more veteran federal housing officials have been suspended pending completion of an investigation into alleged multi-million dollar housing scandals, it was announced Friday.

Placed on involuntary annual leave were James E. Hicks of Washington, director of the Federal Housing Administration's southeast region and former southwest region director, and Andrew Frost of Albequerque, N. M., assistant state director. Charges against the two were not disclosed.

A number of other FHA officials have resigned or been fired or suspended since the housing "irregularities" came to light several weeks ago. They include Commissioner Guy T. O. Hollyday.

The FHA said it suspended Hicks, an employe since 1935, and Frost, with the agency since 1934, at the request of administrator Albert M. Cole of the Housing and Home Finance Agency.

The agency said Cole based his request on information provided by William F. McKenna, deputy administrator in charge of an extensive investigation into FHA operations.

The Senate Banking committee is scheduled to open public hearings on the alleged scandals Monday. Chairman Homer E. Capehart (R-Ind.) has said he plans about 15 days of public hearings before Congress adjourns about July 31.

The inquiries are concerned with alleged irregularities in the now-defunct apartment building program and in another FHA project under which home owners are granted government-insured loans to improve their property.

KANSAS CITY, June 25 (AP) — Harry S. Truman was reported "doing all right" today, although still suffering from nausea and a slight temperature.

The 70-year-old former chief executive underwent surgery last Sunday for removal of his gall bladder and appendix.

Crop Damage In Brownsville Area Reported Heavy

BROWNSVILLE, Tex., June 25 —UP— The first hurricane of 1954, which was cut down to storm size before it got beyond the Gulf Coast, was raining and blowing itself out Friday night in the cotton fields, palm trees and orange groves of the Rio Grande Valley.

The storm killed at least one person, injured one, beached three fishing vessels in the Gulf and pounded one so badly that it radioed it was sinking and asked for help.

The vessel that reported it was sinking was the Maverick, off Port Isabel, Tex., which is 25 miles northeast of Brownsville. The vessel, Miss Liberty, was trying to take off the crew and a Coast Guard lifeboat was sent out to help.

A Coast Guard plane spotted the fishing vessel Raven aground 25 miles south of Port Isabel, and the fishing vessel Cougar aground 45 miles south of Port Isabel. Neither appeared damaged and the crew of one waved at the plane.

Another unidentified fishing vessel reported it was disabled four miles north of Port Isabel. The Coast Guard cutter Triton went out to look for it.

Salvador Villarreal, 47, who owned a cafe in Matamoros, Mexico, across the Rio Grande from Brownsville, was electrocuted when the wind tore down a power line and blew it across his automobile.

A flying timber from a collapsing roof hit Mrs. Maria Teresa Martinez de Castillo, 19, of Matamoros, and she was seriously injured. The highest wind reported on the American side of the border was 61 miles an hour in gusts at Brownsville.

The wind probably was stronger in Mexico, since the center of the storm crossed the coastline about 75 miles southwest of Brownsville. But it was failing as a hurricane

Arkansas Teacher Posed As Revenue Man, FBI Says

MEMPHIS, June 25 (AP) —An Arkansas school teacher was accused by the FBI today of posing as an internal revenue service agent.

Clarence McKinley Snipes, 48, teacher at Marked Tree Vocational and Agricultural School, was held to the grand jury. He made $2,500 bond.

The FBI charged:

Snipes represented himself as a delinquent tax investigator in asking Charles C. Jones about his 1953 income tax return.

The Arkansan then checked Jones' return and told him he paid the proper amount, but that he owed Snipes $10 for the investigation.

Jones paid Snipes six dollars before Snipes was taken into custody.

Snipes said he had contacted other Memphians about their 1953 return but denied having represented himself as an internal revenue agent. Instead, he said, "I merely asked if they wanted their income tax returns prepared."

Snipes, 1935 graduate of Mississippi State, said he had offered his income tax services at other times in Camden, Ark., and Tupelo, Miss.

He said he was visiting relatives here.

Mercury Down Single Degree

The mercury yesterday remained one degree below the 100-mark, record for the year set on Thursday, but few Monroe residents could see any discernible difference in the one-degree cooler weather.

Some excitement developed in downtown sections when a few drops of moisture—evidently by some freak of nature—fell to the ground while few clouds were overhead. Perhaps it was just moisture dropping from the air conditioning units which are mounted on windows in some of the taller buildings.

Southwest Tip

before it got out of the Gulf of Mexico. The highest wind reported when the storm was at sea was 80 miles an hour, five miles over minimum hurricane force.

"It was fortunate," a forecaster said, "that the storm made up so close to the coast. It didn't have time to make up any really violent winds before it went inland."

It appeared that the worst damage was to cotton on both the U. S. and Mexican sides of the border. An eighth to a third of the crop was open and ready to pick. Some of this the wind blew out of the bolls and ruined. Mud and water splashed on some and lowered the grade.

County agents and agricultural experts said the total damage depends on how much it rains through the night. They said the damage could total from hundreds of thousands to millions of dollars if the rain is long enough and hard enough.

In Texas, the worst hit cotton districts were El Jardin, Riverside, Fort Brown, Southmost, Los Frenos and upper Cameron county-Hidalgo county. Palm fronds, small trees, tree branches and flimsy buildings were blown down around Brownsville.

McAllen, Edinburg, Rio Grande City, Sullivan City, Parr, San Juan, Alamo and other Texas cities along the Rio Grande Valley suffered smaller damage. But as night came, radio stations broadcast warnings for persons to stay away from fallen power lines and to report any obstructions on power lines.

Brownsville, whose power supplies are generated by a municipal plant, was almost without power for hours Friday. The Brownsville Herald couldn't get the power to run its presses and it had to be printed on the presses of the Valley Morning Star at Harlingen.

"Several hundred planes" were hastily flown out of fields in the storm area earlier today. Pilots started to evacuate Harlingen, Tex., Air Force base, but called it off after 19 planes had been flown out and it became obvious that the base was not in danger of being hit by a full hurricane.

The federal hurricane warning system issued four advisories on the storm, which it named hurricane "Alice," while it was still of hurricane force. The final advisory was issued at 1 p. m. At the time, the storm was 70 miles west of Brownsville.

The highest winds were 50 miles an hour at 1 p. m. and the hollow eye of the storm was rapidly filling, one of the last steps in its disintegration. Nevertheless, the advisory said small craft from Port O'Connor on Matagorda Bay southward should remain in port, since scattered squalls will whip the northwest gulf through the night.

"Moderate to heavy rains are expected in the Rio Grande Valley as far north as Del Rio Friday afternoon and Friday night," the final advisory said.

Masked Bandits Stage Holdup In Arkansas Town

MARKED TREE, Ark., June 25 (AP)—Three masked bandits robbed the Big E. Ritter Co in downtown Marked Tree of $3,186 late today.

One of the men, "small and nervous," held a pistol on two of the company's employes while another employe handed him the money, in bills of small denomination, from a cash drawer and safe.

The other two men remained in a late model automobile (Chevrolet), parked nearby, Police Chief W. C. Overton said.

They made their getaway to the south, apparently headed toward either Earle or Memphis.

Mrs. J. G. Waskom Jr., bookkeeper and secretary for the company, which has large farming and business interests, said she was returning to the office and met the gunman coming out.

"He almost knocked me down he was in such a hurry to get to the car," she said. He lost his hat while he was running and turned around to go back and get it. A man on the back seat of the car yelled to him to hurry. He got the hat and jumped into the back seat."

quimula. But the communique did not make the Zacapa claim.

Authoritative sources said, however, that a direct bomb hit on an ammunition depot at Zacapa had "knocked out" the garrison there.

The radio said the leftist forces were now "marching victoriously" on to Guatemala City, warned of forthcoming air raids and advised the populace to stay clear of military objectives.

Before capturing Chiquimula, the communique said, the insurgents bombed some heavy artillery emplaced there.

The town, the insurgents said, was strongly fortified and defended by the regular Guatemalan army and "several hundred well-armed Communists."

They also claimed that a military convoy which was sent from the capital to reinforce the garrison at Zapaca was "intercepted and seized" in the town of El Jicaro.

(By a vote of 4 to 5, with 2 abstentions, the U.N. Security Council in New York put off further discussion of a Guatemalan complaint of aggression until the Organization of American States can look into the situation. Seven votes were required to put the complaint on the agenda. Meanwhile, Guatemala announced in Washington she had refused permission to the Inter-American Peace Commission to send an investigating team into Guatemala.)

Authoritative invasion sources said rebel planes bombed Ft. Matamoras in Guatemala City, and scored a direct hit on an ammunition dump at Zacapa which "knocked out" the garrison of that town.

"The cold war is getting hot," the informants said.

Informants here could supply few details of the attacks, but Guatemalan diplomats at the U.N. and in Mexico City said three planes took part in the attack on the capital about 3:30 p.m. La Merced Church in the center of the city was reported destroyed. The diplomats also reported the bombing of Zacapa and Chiquimula with many fires and some casualties at both places and strafing runs over one or two trains in which seven persons were killed.

Associated Press Correspondent Jack Rutledge said in a dispatch from Guatemala City that apparently one plane first attacked the city about 2 p.m., and another shortly after.

There were heavy explosions and much antiaircraft fire, Rutledge said, and merchants hastily put down iron shutters across the fronts of their shops. But many residents ran to the rooftops to see the excitement. He was unable to report on any damage or casualties, but said apparently the National Palace was not materially damaged.

It was Guatemala City's first raid in two days. Previous raids apparently have been by single planes.

The government radio repeated throughout the day, however, that the Guatemalan army had chased the rebels out of Chiquimula, 20 miles from the Honduran border, and was continuing to pursue them into the hills and handing them severe punishment.

Te Liberation radio broadcast, heard in Belize, British Honduras, made the report on the capture of Zacapa, important rail center midway between Guatemala City and the Caribbean port of Puerto Barrios, after Col. Castillo Armas' headquarters had claimed the capture of Chiquimula.

Also on the House calendar is a bill legalizing bingo, keno and raffles conducted by religious and charity organizations. Both have been awaiting action since early in the session.

A Grevemberg-backed bill to make possession of a federal gambling stamp evidence of violation of the state's gambling laws will come up for a second try at House passage next week.

Rep. Shady Wall's measure received a 40-35 favorable vote, 11 short of the required majority. Wall held the bill for reconsideration.

Wall, handling the bill for the state police head, said that there were over 1,300 gambling stamps in Louisiana, adding that they "would not buy the stamps if they didn't intend to use them."

Grevemberg says the law would make it easier to enforce the gambling statutes.

Veterans' Rights To Be Aired During Panel Discussions

Questions involving the rights of U. S. veterans will be aired in open forum and panel discussions scheduled for 8 p.m. July 1 by members of both Monroe and West Monroe Veterans of Foreign Wars posts.

The discussions, to be held at the Rodney J. Hobbs post home in Monroe, will feature a forum-type explanation of the local services offered by parish service officers; compensation and pensions for living veterans; insurance and death benefits; G. I. loans; hospitalization and out-patient treatment; and veterans' education benefits.

All veterans are invited to attend the session, and directors say that "any question concerning the service will be answered."

with the other whatever life might hold it was quite the thing for each to take a husband on the same afternoon.

The first of the two weddings was that of Miss Beverly, who was wedded to Roger Kimball, son of Mrs. C. R. Kimball of Mangham. It took place at 5 p.m. yesterday in Grace Episcopal church. Just an hour later, at 6 p.m., Miss Georgie was married to Alton Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Brown of Hodge. This ceremony was performed in Calvary Baptist church. In each case the other twin sister, was the attendant of the bride.

The ceremonies were so unusual that it seemed fitting that Jes' Ramblin' — who usually is immune to the report of weddings—felt that this is one that even he should give it some well deserved publicity. We wish for both couples a long and happy life!

John was seated at the deathbed scene of his partner, when the depressing stillness of the death chamber was disturbed as the man, breathing with difficulty in bed, lamented: 'John, I have a confession to make. I robbed our firm of $10,000. But that isn't all yet. I sold a secret formula to our competitors. Also I stole a letter out of your desk that helped your wife to get a divorce."

"That's all O. K., pard," his long-time partner said. "I'm the one who gave you that poison that is taking your life."

She was reading a newspaper on the bus, and looking up thoughtfully, she remarked: "Do you know that every time I take a breath a man somewhere dies?"

"That's interesting but why don't you try some breath perfuming?" was his sympathetic rejoinder.

L. J. Gimler, Sr., long-time insurance man, months ago became seriously ill. At one time his life hung in the balance, but he astonished everybody by his slow but sure recovery. It has meant the amputation of his right leg but he is now out in his car and can get about in a collapsible wheel chair.

He soon hopes to secure an artificial leg and to be able to get back into business again.

3 Persons Face Battery Charge; Freed On Bond

Monroe police reported the arrest of three persons Friday charged on battery counts, and the release of the trio on bonds totaling $1000.

Arrested were F. O. Moore, 707 Georgia Street, also charged with disturbing the peace; Mrs. Marcille Patterson, 316 Malvern, and Henry Lee Gordon, Negro.

Moore posted $700 on both counts Mrs. Patterson $200 and Gordon $100. The Negro surrendered to police at headquarters, and the other arrests were made by Capt. Pettit and Officer Spangler Friday morning.

Churchill here, and Secretary of State John Foster Dulles will confer at the State Department at 10:30 a.m. Saturday.

Churchill told a welcoming delegation that met him at the airport his purpose is "to try to make sure there are no misunderstandings" between the two great English-speaking allies in their efforts to halt the advancing strides of Communist aggression.

"If we work together," the grand old man of Britain declared, "we may get along fairly well ourselves and do a lot to help the rest of the world." He said there are indications Russia and its satellites face even sterner problems than the free nations.

Diplomats of both countries, aware of the deep policy division over the best way of saving southeast Asia from Red conquest, made no attempt to minimize the difficulties.

Informed sources said the United States is more determined than ever to form an Allied southeast Asia pact as the cornerstone of U. S. policy.

Against that the British will play their own scheme, outlined by Eden earlier this week, for an Asian non-aggression pact signed by both the Allies and the Communists.

Whether these differences can be reconciled remained to be seen. But there was no doubt that Mr. Eisenhower, and the rest of the capital, were happy to entertain their celebrated visitor again.

Although no public ceremonies were planned, large numbers of Washingtonians and tourists showed up at both the airport and the White House to raise an affectionate cheer for the aging British leader.

Sir Winston responded with the familiar doff of his Homburg, the cherubic grin and his trademark "V-for-victory" wave.

He told Vice President Richard M. Nixon, Secretary of State John Foster Dulles and other dignitaries who met him at the airport that he and Eden came here "to talk over a few family matters."

At the White House, Churchill was installed in the rose suite which he occupied during his World War II visits with the late President Roosevelt. Eden was placed in the Lincoln bedroom.

Mr. Eisenhower was waiting on the north portico to greet his old wartime friend with a "nice to see you." Churchill will stay at the executive mansion through Sunday and then move to the British embassy for two nights before flying to Canada late Tuesday.

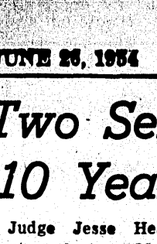
Dorothy Dix

DEAR MISS DIX: I have a friend who is worried about her daughter. The girl, now 17, is the most defiant, impudent child I have ever seen. She wasn't taken in hand in early childhood, and now her parents can do nothing with her. She has a good position, spends all her money on herself, goes where and when she likes, giving no information as to destination, companions, or time of return. She claims her home life is unbearable and she's leaving as soon as she's 18.



Do you think her parents should try to stop her, or let her go? Her folks are very good people, but made the mistake of spoiling the girl when she was young. If they tried to scold her, she always burst into tears and said no one loved her, etc.; so, being softhearted, her father and mother did everything to keep her from crying. The mother will be heartbroken if she leaves, but what can be done to stop her?

Marge

ANSWER: When a situation has been permitted to go along unchecked, gathering momentum every year, it's rather futile to hope that a radical change can be made at this late date. Continued and increased concessions might keep the girl home, but eventually the limit will be reached. It would be better to face the issue now. As your friend has so firmly established the pattern of letting her daughter have her own way, you certainly have no reason to assume that she'll begin a disciplining program now, even if one might be effective. Anyway, the girl probably has no intention of leaving home. Why should she? She has unlimited freedom, complete control over the money she earns; her clothes are cleaned and pressed, her meals cooked, her room kept clean. She's enough of an opportunist to realize that such service will not be available if she goes out on her own.

SHE NEEDS RESPONSIBILITY

A bit of responsibility is what Miss Defiance needs; mother should open the door and send her off instead of deciding to have a nervous breakdown. Mom is now shedding the tears that daughter should have shed many years ago. If Mom would dry her eyes and set up a bit of authority, something might be salvaged yet. The shock, alone, of being told to launder her own clothes, contribute financially to the household, and explain her late hours, might bring the young lady to her senses. Try to strengthen Mom's backbone if you really have friendly impulses.

DEAR MISS DIX: I'm 16, and though I have lots of boy friends, there are two in particular I like—Peter and Rob. Peter can't come over to see me very often, as he has no means of transportation, but Rob has a car. They both want me to go steady, but I can't decide which one to choose.

Marcia

ANSWER: There's really no point in tying yourself down to one boy when you like them all equally well. Tell both boys you aren't ready for steady dating and the best they can do is wait until you are.

DEAR MISS DIX: One of my brothers-in-law takes great pleasure in teasing our 6-year-old son, to the point that the boy becomes very nervous after every family visit. When the child shows signs of annoyance, the uncle will strike him—ostensibly in fun, of course, but leaving black-and-blue marks that to me aren't funny. If the uncle is here when I'm not at home, the situation becomes almost uncontrollable. If I'm present it doesn't get so bad. How can it be stopped?

Father

ANSWER: Drastic though the measure may be, I'd forbid the uncle to come to the house unless he will control his antics. He's covering a cruel streak with a thin veneer of "playing with the boy." Either have the boy in bed when the family visits, or curtail the calls of this particular pest.

'FLY BREAD'

Natives of the Lake Nyassa region of Africa use a bread the sole ingredient of which consists of small brownish flies, known as kungu. They capture the flies by running into the thick swarms with baskets and then knead the flies into the bread "dough."

3 Juveniles Held For Burglary

Three white juveniles were apprehended by deputies of the Ouachita parish sheriff's department yesterday at noon in connection with the burglary of the McGuire Golf Clubhouse in West Monroe sometime Thursday night, Sheriff Bailey Grant said.

They were turned over to parish juvenile authorities.

The complaint was filed at 8:30 a.m., deputies said, and by noon the youths had been apprehended, and the stolen goods, several bottles of liquor, recovered.

Little Was This Realized

On Wednesday morning, the World was visited by an official of the Embassy of Honduras. It was a most interesting visit. The World editorial staff attempted to keep him longer. His revaluations concerning Guatemala were indeed interesting.

It has been the unpleasant duty of the Morning World to bring the facts concerning the Communist influence in Guatemala to the light of the public eye. As early as last year, the World was able to bring you the fact that the little Republic was fast becoming a Communist nation. Six months ago, a description of the enlarged airfields was given with hints that submarine pens were being built. All along, little was officially said about Guatemala.

Now, the unfortunate consequences are fast becoming known. The Honduran official stated that he has seen films of these airfields and Mexico City reported on Monday that the submarine pens were likely and that "curious operations" were seen on the Pacific and Caribbean coasts.

It has been stated that the Guatemalan situation is a good thing for the American people. Guatemala clearly demonstrated that there is a Communist police state in the midst of the Americas. It is easy to denounce the Federal Administration for a lack of foresight in the impasse but to do so would not be all in accord with the existing situation.

The administration has little knowledge of what the American people are thinking as regards these things because few of the people actually think about them themselves. Unless something happens which directly concerns you, you don't think about it.

It is hard for the American people to realize that the world has shrunk. What happens in Guatemala or Honduras or Moscow concerns you just as much as something in this area. The meeting of the Supreme Soviet of the Russian empire is more important actually than the meeting of the Ouachita Parish Police Jury or the City Council. If the plans made in the Supreme Soviet are allowed to succeed, there could be no police jury or city council.

Many times, one overhears a conversation which goes along the lines of "being tired" of hearing about the Communists or about the South Americans. What they do in some respect, concerns you and the manner in which you live.

The American people are directly responsible for what is happening in Guatemala. They are guilty of complicancy. The impasse there could have been prevented long ago. Unfortunately, the people do not regard these things as important. There are few if any long range plans. Communist philosophy is very Oriental in that if an achievement takes a hundred years, so be it. Western philosophy decrees that something must be done immediately. Hence, few long range plans.

Some weeks ago, during a conference with a high official of this state, an attempt was made to impress upon him the dangers of the failure of the passage of the Bricker proposal and the terrible dangers of the destruction of American sovereignty. It is not believed that the governor was very impressed as he was mainly concerned with the activities of the state legislature.

Does he, (and certainly, he is not alone) not realize the fact that if the sovereignty of this nation is lost, there can be no state legislature? Does he (again, he is not alone) not realize that the Federal Government can destroy most of the legislation passed by the states if it so chooses?

Guatemala might have been a good thing. Then again, it might not have been a good thing. Perhaps it would have been better had the Communists grabbed Guatemala, finished their airfields and bombed this nation? Maybe that's what is needed to awaken the people.

One local citizen laughed and said, "How's the banana war?" The "Banana war" might still erupt into something terrible and far more serious. Left alone, it could have erupted into the Malaya or the Indo-China of the Western hemisphere.

Yet, the American people drift along, most of them, unaware that destruction of a terrible nature is at hand. Many of them tell the officials not to worry about Communism. A Louisiana congressman stated that it was being "overplayed."

Is a force, a new religion which seeks the destruction of the free world, the United States, Louisiana, Ouachita Parish and the Twin Cities anything which can be overplayed?

Can the force which admittedly, out of its own official pronouncements and records, plan to kill a third of the nation, imprison another third and "use" the final third—can that be underestimated?

The Morning World hardly believes this to be the truth. The idea of a "Chinese wall" around the Twin Cities and this area is still a good idea. It is still a correct estimation of the existing situation. Fortunately or unfortunately, this area is more awake than are many others.

The uprising in Guatemala, if it succeeds, will be a service to the freedom and the individuality of the human race. Even if it fails, it will have awakened some of the officials who will have to take action. It will demonstrate the folly of joining an international organization which demonstrates with every action that it cannot succeed and that it merely desires the control of this last great free nation.

It is hoped that these effects will manifest themselves across the length of the United States. In the meantime, the American people, with the aid of friendly officials like the one from Honduras, can help themselves awaken to the dangerous situation at hand.

The livelihood of all of you is dependent on this coming to pass.

Russia is credited with being well advanced in the development of atomic energy, having taken full advantage of all the secret information supplied by its sympathetic friends in the U. S.

Days are getting longer as is their wont at this time of year, but as yet Moscow has not claimed this is caused by something the Russians invented.

George Sokolsky

THESE DAYS

A Question Of Ethics

In a free society, government is an instrument of the people to perform such tasks as they choose to do in common. Under our Constitution, the Federal Government is permitted to perform limited duties, but all rights are stipulated as belonging to the States and the people thereof. The Federal Government may not lawfully expand its authority or the tasks which it is designated to undertake. A constitutional amendment may increase the Federal responsibility, but such an amendment can only be passed by the consent of the States.

In a word, the American Constitution recognizes the peril to the people in a tautly centralized government. While the term, police state, was unknown to the Founding Fathers, the concept was clear to them and is duly described in the Declaration of Independence in the following clauses in which is stated the attitude of George III to the rights of the people in the American Colonies:

"He has obstructed the administration of justice, by refusing his assent to laws for establishing judiciary powers.

"He has made judges dependent on his will alone, for the tenure of their offices, and the amount and payment of their salaries.

"He has erected a multitude of new offices, and sent hither swarms of officers to harass our people and eat out their substance . . .

"He has affected to render the military independent of, and superior to, the civil power."

In the recent McCarthy-Stevens hearings the ethical question of monitored telephone calls arose. It was admitted that such telephone calls were illegal and it took the Committee weeks to have these calls admitted in evidence by consent of the parties concerned. The morals of the issue are more important than the legalities. The assumption must be that an American citizen is free to address an official of his government without fear or damage. The Right of Petition is stipulated in the First Amendment to the Constitution, and while this right relates to "a redress of grievances," the nature of the grievances is not stated.

The telephone had not been invented when the Constitution was signed and correspondence was written by quill pens. With the widespread use of the telephone, citizens may speak to their officials by means of this instrument. Along with the telephone have come a number of devices for placing an unknown, unannounced witness to conversation, in which instance only one of the parties is cognizant of the presence of the witness. It is also possible to tap the telephone wires by mechanical devices, in which instance neither of the parties to the conversation may know that a witness is present. It is also possible to record a telephone conversation for permanent reference. This is illegal unless a beep is provided which is sounded at regular intervals so that both parties may know that they are being monitored. No distinction can be made in ethics or in law between the use of a mechanical device or a human being to monitor telephone calls.

What such a recording means is that the casual word, spoken without caution, may be recalled months or years later when the party who did not monitor the call may not remember that it ever took place. Now that the hearings are over, I can cite this example: John Adams, counsel to the Secretary of the Army, who did not monitor his calls to me, says that he spoke to me on February 5, 2, and 16. I only recall that he telephoned to me on February 16 but must assume that he made the other calls because he said so. But his memory is apparently as poor as mine because what he said he spoke to me about on February 5, he actually spoke about on February 16. Had that call been monitored, the last minute of it would have made us both appear to be ridiculous because the language was not of the very best, both of us ending on a bantering note.

As long as government officials insist upon committing an illegal act, citizens will be justified in refusing to talk to them by telephone I certainly shall avoid such risk in the future. In the police state, the monitored telephone is a normal instrument for the control of the people by their officials. The procedure should be forbidden by Act of Congress.

Things I Never Knew

There is no record of Sherlock Holmes ever having uttered the cliche, "Elementary, my dear Watson," in any of the A. Conan Doyle tomes. Old Sherl never said more than "Elementary" (once in a rare while) when addressing The Good Doctor. . .In ancient Egypt when a pussycat died all members of the household went into strict mourning and shaved off their eyebrows. (O, don't skip! This gets better as you yawn along;. . .Wait a trice! A trice is the 60th part of a second. . .The white man introduced scalping into the Southwest. They learned it from the Indians of the Grat Plains and used it to terrify the Apaches. . .Think you have it tough paying taxes? John Morton (financial advisor to Henry VII) laid down this rule: "Those who are rich must be made to pay more because they can well afford to do so. Those who live simply and economically must save quite a lot of money, so they must pay more tax."

Know what happens to your metabolism when you fall in love? The working of the body suddenly improves, making the arteries dilate so that more blood is sent to every part of the body. The pulse becomes firmer, the skin healthier and more elastic and the breathing deeper. Infectious diseases are resisted as never before. . .So you see, those love songs aren't exaggerations, after all.

Among other things I still dunno is why they never name a newspaper The Moon. You can get the Globe, the Sun and the Star but no Lil Ol' Moon. . .Think you're underpaid? Harry von Tilzer wrote more than a dozen songs for vaudeville stars at $2 per ditty. . .George Gershwin's first song, "When You Want 'Em You Can't Get 'Em," was peddled for 5 bux . . .They say your eyes indicate how long you'll live. If you don't need specs until you're 50 you'll prob'ly live past 70. . .Psychologists contend the best thing to wear is something white—if a girl wants to trap a feller into a wedding. (Virtuous, pure, blah-blubbleh). . .There's a Chinese adage which sez: "There is no economy in going to bed early to save candles if the result be twins."

Civil Service On Spot

Democrats are laughing—and not up their sleeves, either—at the sporadic efforts of the Republican party to transfer enough good jobs out from under the Civil Service system to increase the dwindling supply of available political appointees, during the Roosevelt and Truman administration.

Early in this administration, Republican policy makers found themselves stumbling over civil service trip wires when they tried to find jobs for deserving Republicans, as every party does on taking over the government. The hunt really did not get under way until late in the 1953 season, after the appropriation bills were well advanced, and the GOP party chiefs hesitated to draw Democratic fire by stripping civil service from jobs which Republicans claimed were policy making, and therefore should be under control of the Eisenhower administration.

This year with elections at hand they are out in earnest to put their ideas into effect, as evidenced by testimony before the Appropriations committee of both houses.

CSC Chairman Philip Young, son of industrialist and international banking expert Owen D. Young, has shown reluctance to go along with the plan to transfer several hundred jobs to "Schedule C", designated last year as the list of those subject to political clearance.

To make his task easier, some Republican senators have proposed riders to appropriation bills making clear that jobs in certain categories will not be under the Civil Service Commision, which supposedly makes federal appointments on merit only.

Political appointments in government are not the little stuff, but those paying from $12,000 to $14,800 annually. Of course, the jobs which the Democrats blanketed in were not peanuts, either. But it's harder to get jobs out from under CS than it was to get them in.

The administration, pressed on the one hand to provide more plums and determined on the other to have loyal Republicans running the government agencies, asked for 28 new top jobs in the State and Commerce departments at salaries from $12,000 to $18,000 a year. Political clearance was demanded on hundreds of others.

Democrats on the Senate Appropriations Committee came up with arguments on those and other relatively high salaried political jobs, asserting that they tended to wreck the career Civil Service system.

It was then that Senator Everett McKinley Dirksen (Rep.—Ill.) warned Young that "they will be looking for your scalp and mine" unless more jobs are open to political appointment. Young demurred on the ground that to make the necessary investigations to find how many jobs (out of 315,000 non civil service jobs in government) could be made available for political appointment, which would mean ousting the incumbents in many instances, would cost a considerable amount of money.

"I would like to make a little deal," said Dirksen. "If you whisper to me how much money you need to do this job I will speak to our chairman over here and see what I can do about it".

That brought protests from the Democratic side, but Dirksen didn't change his attitude. "I must assure you that I am constrained to pursue this course," he said to Young. "I have no choice in the matter. I shall have to pursue it with a great deal of vigor. I trust before that something concerete will materialize."

The patronage wagon seems to have at last begun to move on the Republican track. But before it goes much further, Civil Service officials say some revision will have to be made in the job security given by veterans' preference.

Congress will balk at changing that. The alternative seems to be to get CSC to lay down political clearance specifications for sever thousand more jobs—mostly little and medium sized and a few hundred well paying ones. That will be a slow process.

Our Children

By Angelo Patri

'To His Stature'

Whatever adds to a child's feeling of importance, whatever makes him feel bigger, more powerful and a mark for others to aim at, is good for his soul and his body. Encourage it.

Any normal, healthy boy or girl loves to discover that somebody thought of him as an important person in his own name. That is why he loves getting a letter through the mail. An advertisement, a sample of goods, delivered by the mailman sets him up for days.

We ought to use this feeling more than we do. A subscription to a magazine published, written, for children, each according to age, reading ability and interests, is about the most useful, helpful gift that a nice aunt or uncle, can send a child. Each time the mail man delivers the precious bit of mail its owner glows. Then he has the joy of reading it.

A subscription to a book club, that specializes in books suitable for children and adolescents interests and reading ability, is one of the finest possible gifts. We want children to read good books and the good magazines. The world is full of them but too many are out of the children's reach. They cost too much for the allowance to support, so "comics" are the answer. Affectionate, understanding parents and relatives ought to take over here and make sure that there is good reading, entertaining reading, within reach of the children.

I stress the entertainment to be found in reading for children and the adolescent boys and girls. They get tests books, they read informative books, in relation to schoolwork, as duty reading. They need to know that by picking up their magazine, their book, they can find fun, pleasure, relief. Father and mother do not read too many books on science or philosophy. And they know why.

Children who do a day's work in school are as weary, for them, as their parents are after their day's work. They need to read for relaxation and pleasure just as older people do. If they are on the mailing lists of the best magazines for children, on the lists of the book clubs that select good books for boys and girls, they will have this in good supply.

Is there a table and a lamp for the children's books and magazines in the living room? A bookshelf? Too many homes are being built without any provision for children. The houses that make no such provision are never to be homes. A real house that is to become a home, has rooms for children, shelves for their books, chairs to their size, tables too. Do attend to this need in the children's lives; books and magazines, handy, mailed regularly through the year.

Good books play a great part in developing a child's background and behavior. Dr. Patri's leaflet P-8, includes a list of more than 50 books suitable for growing children. To obtain a copy, send 10 cents in coin to him, care of Morning World, P. O. Box 99, Station G,

"Full Field Investigations" Clear Staffs Of Key Units,

WASHINGTON — More, perhaps, than in any other agency of government, at the Atomic Energy Commission security is an overall concern. The commission has even gone so far as to bar a Congressman from one of its classified briefings.

Last year, prior to the atomic tests at the Nevada proving ground, the FBI transmitted to the AEC a file on Rep. Robert L. Condon (D-Calif.). After consultation with the chairman of the Joint Congressional Committee on Atomic Energy, Rep. W. Sterling Cole (R N. Y.), AEC Chairman Lewis W. Strauss barred Condon from the classiifed briefing which preceded the tests.

The tests themselves were witnessed by a number who were not required to have clearances—Civil Defense personnel, newspaperman and movie operators — and the Congressman was not barred from the site; but after being excluded from the briefing, he decided not to attend. Rep. Condon denied that he was a security risk and on June 8 won renomination in the California Sixth District.

When Congress' joint Atomic Energy Committee was first established, its members volunteered to offer themselves for security clearance in connection with the material which was about to be made available to them. Such clearance was never undertaken, but the staff of the committee is given a full field investigation by the FBI, Congressional Quarterly was told.

Full field investigations followed by clearance, either by the committee which they serve or through the Defense Department, for many years have been given to the professional staffs of a number of the key committees handling classified information in both houses of Congress. Lesser investigations have been made of the clerical personnel. Among others, this has for some time been standard practice in the Appropriations, Armed Services, and Foreign Relations-Foreign Affairs committees.

In January, 1953, Sen. Pat McCarran (D Nev.), just before relinquishing his Judiciary committee chairmanship, introduced a Senate resolution that all Senators should request FBI checks on the personnel whom they engaged for office or committee staffs. In proposing the resolution, the Senator recognized the problem of infringing on the right of any member of Congress to employ assistants of his own choosing, and the administrative difficulties in seeing that such a check was made. In the debate, Sen. Wayne Morse (I Ore.) proposed that senators offer themselves for checks as well. His amendment was rejected but the resolution was passed. In the absence of a follow-up, however, the number of staff members attached to the Congress who have been checked is uncertain.

Evidence of this uncertainty appeared in discussion at the Army-McCarthy hearings between Sen. John L. McClellan (D Ark.) and Chief Counsel Roy M. Cohn of the McCarthy Subcommittee as to the clearance by the Defense Department of Subcommittee personnel in connection with the handling of classified documents. Sen. McClellan indicated that he believed clearances on two of the staff members had failed to come through.

The Old Army Game — "Hurry Up and Wait, we called it in the Army. But we have the same routine in Congress . . . I wonder if administration leaders in Congress aren't building a legislative log-jam for the frantic closing days of this session . . . If we aren't stalling now so that as we near adjournment we will be swamped with legislation. If this is the case, we'll pass a lot of poorly considered laws in the closing days—and a lot of good bills will die . . . because there just wasn't time to do anything with the . . ." — Rep. The Old Guessing Game — "The perennial Washington guessing game is now in process as to when Congress will adjourn. Republican leaders forecast . . . Aug. 1, but . . . Strange Peacetime Uses Found For Atomic Energy

By FRANK CAREY
Associated Press Science Reporter

ANN ARBOR, Mich., June 25 (AP)—Possible new uses for the atom in industry—ranging from treating pork chops to assuring that your cigarette is fully packed—were described today by atomic scientists.

The ideas were presented to the closing session of an International Congress on Nuclear Engineering, sponsored at the University of Michigan by the American Institute of Chemical Engineers.

Dr. L. E. Brownell and several U.M. colleagues, declaring it previously has been shown experimentally that a certain dosage of atomic radiation applied to pork can sterilize it against possiblity of causing "trichinosis" in a pork eater, said they had worked out a design for a radiation device applicable to pork production lines.

They said the figure that with such a device, pork could be irradiated at a cost of less than one-fourth of a cent per pound, using a production rate of 2,000 hogs a day. The device, placed handy to the production line where future pork roasts and pork chops would come into position, would contain a radioactive material originally produced in an atomic "furnace."

Researchers G. D. Calkins and Meyer Pobereskin of the Battelle Memorial Institute, Columbus, Ohio, told how the atom might be put to work "inspecting" cigarettes to assure that they contain just the right amount of tobacco—neither too little nor too much.

They said a "density gauge" instrument containing a radioactive material could be arranged in such a way that cigarettes moving on a conveyor belt would pass through part of the instrument, receiving an application of atomic rays.

The cigarettes would pass through in small groups. Their density—the amount of tobacco in them—would be measured in terms of the amount of radiation they cause to be "scattered" back. Cigarettts not measuring up to specifications would be automatically shagged from the conveyor belt.

The Battelle team also listed various other possible applications of the busybody atom, such as measuring the moisture content of paper, tobacco and various chemicals.

And they said the atom already is being used in such applications as measuring the wearing quality of automotive distributor points and other electrical contacts; determining the wearability of various moving parts of engines, such as piston rings; measuring the density of soil under proposed road beds or buildings; determining the cleaning efficiency of soaps and washing machines and even the effectiveness of vacuum sweepers.

Former Marine Is Electrocuted While On Farm

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—A former Marine was accidentally electrocuted yesterday on a quiet farm where he was building himself up for a 14th operation on wounds received in the Korean campaign.

Donn Moling, 22, took a temporary job on a nearby farm to strengthen himself for surgery on neck, back and lung injuries.

As he reached for a wire to plug in a motor, he dropped it into a puddle. Then, or as he bent to pick it up, the charge struck him.

Emergency squads were not able to revive him.

Writers Confer In Corpus Christi

By ANNABEL PANKEY

What the New England summer theatre is to the aspiring actor, the writers' conference is to the beginning writer.

Every summer, writers' conferences, held in various sections of the country, attract new (but not always young) writers in droves. Attendance varies according to the conference from a few dozen people to several hundred.

One of the largest of these gatherings is the Southwest Writers' Conference which, held annually in Corpus Christi, Tex. since 1943 has just completed another highly successful "run." Thanks to the Byliners, an organization of Texas writers, who are sponsors and planners of the yearly event, southwestern writers and New York editors sometimes meet for the first time and, as we once heard a magazine editor confess, personal contact with the editor does have its affect on sales!

This year's conference, opened on June 5 and lasted through June 8. It was attended by over three hundred writers, their guests and observers from widely scattered sections of the United States.

Other outstanding individuals present were J. Frank Dobie, well-known Texas author; Ruel McDaniel, prolific free-lance article writer; Samuel W. Taylor, contributor of fiction to the Saturday Evening Post and other national publications; Frank X. Tolbert, Boyce House, Townsend Miller and Jewel Gibson.

During the assembly, present day trends in literature were discussed by Harrison Smith in a speech entitled "Publishing Picture from New York," in which he spoke of the return to conservatism in the realm of literature and art.

The necessity to the writer of maintaining his integrity was emphasized by Frank Dobie in a conference talk and the value of writing in quantity, the "must" task of the beginning writer who wishes to achieve proficiency in his craft, was stressed in informal discussions.

Problems involved in the collecting and selling of non-fiction material were analyzed and in the instance of poetry, such topics as "Why Poems are Rejected," "Possibilities in Poetry" and "The Return to Lyricism" were lectured upon by authorities in this type of writing.

On the last day of the conference, Harrison Smith presented awards, donated by lovers of literature, to writers who had entered and won contests conducted by the assembly's officials. The presentations were made at a luncheon at the Corpus Christi Country Club.

Among the awards was an honorable mention for an unpublished children's book which was won by Willie Cunningham of Shreveport.

While making his presentation address Smith stressed his conviction that there should be more foundations to enable young or beginning writers to "get somewhere in the world."

At this luncheon, Joe O. Naylor of the Naylor Press, the largest regional publishing house in America, spoke briefly on the needs of his company, stating that his house primarily wants regional non-fiction. Books of this sort seeking acceptance from his company must be those which can be substantiated, he emphasized.

Following the luncheon, which concluded the business of the meeting, the group was entertained at a swimming and picnic party on Padre Island in the Gulf.

Among distinguished observers present was John H. Barker, president of the National Audubon Society and a contributor of a column to the Audubon Magazine.

The four day conference offered workshops conducted by some of America's most outstanding authors and lectures delivered by various editors and publishers. And, not only did the writers have the opportunity of general discussion but private conferences were held. Criticism (sometimes a bit caustic!) was freely given.

Among the notables present was Harrison Smith, editor of The Saturday Review (formerly The Saturday Review of Literature) of New York; Elsa and S. Omar Barker, writers of westerns, and, in the case of Omar Barker, light, widely-published verse as well as fiction; Garland Roark, author of "Star in the Rigging" and other books.

Margaret Young, a Beaumont, Tex. book critic and scout for Doubleday Publishing Company, New York, was there and, needless to say, could seldom move without a "court" of hopeful authors, who followed her from one conference room to the next!

Library Trustees Meet At Tallulah Golf Club

Mr. Carey J. Ellis, Jr., chairman, presided over the meeting, and Mrs. W. F. Patton of Madison served as secretary. Brief reports were given from each parish library represented, with Mr. C. E. Hester reporting from Madison. Mr. Hester told about the one mill tax that was passed for the library in March the puppet plays that have been given by the library staff, and the programs presented in Tallulah by John Chase, New Orleans author cartoonist as guest of the Madison Parish Library.

Miss Kathryn Adams, field representative from the Louisiana State Library, brought greetings from Miss Culver, state librarian, who asked that her appreciation be expressed to all who helped in the recent passage of a bill which provides a new building for the state library. She also reported new developments in libraries throughout the state, and urged those present to attend the open house program to be held in Lake Providence at 10 a.m. Tuesday, June 29; at this time the State Library is opening the East Carroll Parish Library demonstration which will be the fortieth parish library in Louisiana. Miss Adams stated that bookmobile service will take care of people living outside of Lake Providence, as this has been found to be less exepensive and more successful than using branches in the small parishes

Reports were followed by a question and answer period and a round table discussion of practices in the various libraries represented.

With Mr. Russell Sprague of Madison, Mrs. Lewis Beasley of Concordia, and Mrs. C. M. Strauss of Ouachita serving on the nominating committee, the following officers were elected for next year: Mrs. O. N. Reynolds of Caldwell Parish, chairman; and Mr. James Madison of Morehouse, secretary.

Mrs. Lillian Gray, librarian of the Concordia Parish Library, extended the invitation for the group to meet in Ferriday next year.

At the conclusion of the program, Mr. Russell Sprague passed around Coca-Colas.

Those attending the meeting were Mrs. B. K. Conger and Mr. and Mrs. James Madison from Morehouse Parish; Mrs. Lewis Beasley from Concordia; Mrs C. M. Strauss and Miss Carrie Dee Drew of Ouachita Parish; Mrs. O. N. Reynolds, of Caldwell; Mrs. C. M. Lensing of East Carroll; Mrs. R. R. Rhymes and Mr Carey J. Ellis, Jr., of Richland; Mr. Russell Sprague, Mr. R. R. Spigener, Mr. C. E. Hester, Mr. H. C. Sevier, Sr., and Mrs. W. F. Patton of Madison; and the following librarians: Miss Kathryn Adams of the state library, Mrs. Lillian C. Gray of Concordia, Miss Vera Jane Godown of Caldwell. Miss Frances Flanders of Ouachita, and Miss Mary Moore Mitchell of Madison.

White To Delay Special Session

JACKSON, Miss., June 25 (AP) — Gov. Hugh White said today he would not call the Legislature into special session to consider educational matters until after the Aug. 24 Democratic primary election.

He did not say how soon thereafter he would call the session. He said the time of the call would depend upon submission of plans to side-step the U.S. Supreme Court decision outlawing public school segregation.

On Tuesday, the Legal Education Advisory Committee considered amendments designed to make Mississippi's constitution impregnable in the state's fight to retain segregation.

Attorney General Of NY Protests Snub To Brownell

NEW YORK, June 25 (AP) —State Atty. Gen. Nathaniel L. Goldstein protested today against the decision not to invite U.S. Atty. Gen. Herbert Brownell to address the National Assn. of Attorneys General in Biloxi, Miss., next December.

Goldstein said he had written to Atty. Gen. Eugene Cook of Georgia, association president, who said Wednesday Brownell would not be asked to speak at the convention because of his part in the recent school segregation case.

The Justice Department, under Brownell, presented the government case calling for an end to school segregation. The Supreme Court ruled that segregation must go.

Goldstein, a Republican and a member of the association for 12 years, said he had written "expressing my sentiments" but declined to disclose the contents of his letter pending receipt of a reply from Cook.

Cook told a Kiwanis Club meeting Brownell "is the attorney general for all the people yet he has acted against the wishes of constituted states." Cook said he would not "impose upon the hospitality of the state of Mississippi" by inviting Brownell to speak.

Brownell will be invited to attend the convention, Cook said.

3 Backers Of 'Joe Must Go' Face Charges

BARABOO, Wis., June 25 (AP) — Dist. Atty. Harlan Kelley of Sauk County reported today he had prepared criminal informations against three Milwaukee firms charging them with contributing to the Joe Must Go Club in violation of the state Corrupt Practices Act.

The Joe Must Go Club of Wisconsin Inc., with headquarters at Sauk City, sought unsuccessfully to obtain the required number of signatures for a recall election for Sen. McCarthy R-Wis.

Kelley said he would put the informations in the mail today, addressed to the sheriff of Milwaukee County.

He identified the firms as the Standard Paper Co., the Electric Welding and Engineering Corp., and Charles Meissner and Associates, Inc.

Kelley said the firms allegedly violated state law by contributing to the club. He said statutes prohibit domestic corporations from paying or contributing money to any political organization for any political purpose.

The district attorney said the firms would have 20 days in which to answer in Sauk County Circuit Court. He said that in addition to sending the informations to the sheriff he would send letters to the companies advising them of the action.

Kelley said he had conferred with the attorney general's office in connection with his previously announced plan to issue "many warrants" in connection with activities of the club founded by Leroy Gore, Sauk City weekly newspaper editor.

Condemn Red Moves In Western Hemisphere

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate Foreign Relations Committee, looking straight at Guatemala, today approved unanimously a resolution declaring the "international Communist movement" must be kept out of this hemisphere.

Although the resolution carries no legal force, its adoption by the Senate and House would make it an expression of the view of Congress and strengthen the administration s hand in whatever moves it makes to combat communism in Latin America.

As approved by the committee, the resolution is a revised version of one introduced by Sen. Lyndon Johnson of Texas, the Democratic leader.

The committee substituted the "international Communist movement" for references Johnson made to the Soviet Union, and rephrased Johnson's language calling for "direct and appropriate action" to bar Soviet interference in this hemisphere.

The word "direct" was dropped. Sen. H. Alexander Smith (R-NJ), acting chairman, told reporters it was stricken so as to leave no possible implication that the United States government was being asked by Congress to take "direct" military action in Guatemala.

Smith told newsmen the resolution "serves a Monroe Doctrine notice on the world that we don't want any Communist infiltration in this hemisphere."

Following is the text of the resolution's pronouncement as approved by the committee:

"It is the sense of Congress that the United States should reaffirm its support of the Caracas declaration of March 13, 1954, which is designed to prevent interference in Western Hemisphere affairs by the international Communist movement and take all necessary and proper steps to support the Organization of American States in taking appropriate steps to prevent any interference by the international Communist movement in the affairs of the states of the Western Hemisphere."

Des Moines Faces Another Flood; Main Peril Over

DES MOINES, Ia., June 25 —UP—Des Moines faced another flood threat from a crest on the Raccoon River Friday but the major danger appeared over and impatient evacuees awaited the signal to return to their homes.

The sandbagging efforts of more than 5,000 workers held the city's dikes against the worst flood crest in history on the Des Moines River. The new threat was at the junction of the Des Moines and Raccoon in the southeast section of the city.

The evacuees, estimated at about 1,000 families, were humbly thankful for the grim fight that saved the city.

"If they hadn't saved us, the waters would have ruined everything we have," Mrs. Freeman Vasquez, 27, another evacuee and mother of four, said. "I just hope they can get it over with so we can go home."

City officials said the evacuated families would not be able to return to their homes until late Sunday, when the slowly falling Des Moines River is expected to be back within its banks.

The river crested at 7.19 feet over bankful Thursday and had receded to 5.81 feet over flood stage by midday Friday. Bankful is 23 feet.

About 100 homes were flooded and only 2 per cent of the city was under water, far less than in the 1947 flood when 20 per cent of Des Moines was flooded. But the river this year reached a crest of 30.15 against the peak of 26.5 in 1947.

Several hundred volunteers. National Guardsmen and city flood workers continued to patrol 5½ miles of city dikes looking for breaks and excessive seepage.

Red Commandos Seek To Invade Haiphong Airbase

HANOI, June 25 —UP— The French high command said Friday that Communist commandos Thursday night attempted to infiltrate and attack Dowson airbase, six miles south of Haiphong, where American Air Force technicians are stationed.

Alert patrols and machinegun emplacements on the outskirts of the field, one of the largest French air bases in the Red River delta, threw back the attackers, the announcement said.

But Red troops seized three French positions in the delta area —one of them astride the vital Hanoi-Haiphong railway linking Hanoi with its port at Haiphong.

The other two posts were at Quang Yen, nine miles northeast of Haiphong and near the French Viet Namese army training school and in the southern delta area at Dan Le, north of Ninh Binh.

All three of the lost posts were rated as important French defense positions.

The position on the Hanoi-Haiphong railway, 25 miles east of Hanoi, was the third such that the Reds have seized along the vital lifeline. The French announcement said it "fell by treachery," presumably through desertion of native militiamen to the Reds.

Trailer Doesn't Trail For Long

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—Ladder truck No. 1 roared out of the firehouse, swung east and hurried to answer an alarm last night.

That is, the truck did. The trailer didn't. It rolled straight across the street, sideswiped one car and rammed a second.

The second car rolled into a third.

The third flashed down the sidewalk, clipped a lamp post, lumbered across the street and crunched into two other cars.

The trailer halted its trip by breaking an axle after its tie-in with car No. 2. It was then discovered that the trailer driver hadn't made the trip at all.

"Ninety-nine times out of 100 I look back over the truck to see if everybody's there," explained Lt. L. B. Sheets. "This time I didn't."

The fire? Just a sprinkler alarm, no damage. The trailer driver? He slept through it all.

Wisner Sergeant Commended By Special FBI Agent

Sgt. Lester L. Felter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse J. Felter of Wisner, has been commended by M.P. Chiles, special agent of the F.B.I. office at San Antonio, according to an announcement from Fourth Army headquarters at Fort Sam Houston, Tex.

The commendation was made for his part in identifying a gunman who escaped after demanding and receiving $500 from a teller at the Frost National Bank, San Antonio.

Shortly before 3 p.m., June 8, the gunman made good his escape after demanding and receiving $500 from the teller. In cooperation with the F.B.I., a local newspaper published a picture on its front page of an artist's drawing of the robber.

Through the alertness of Sgt. Lester L. Felter, 4006 ASU enlisted detachment, Fort Sam Houston, Tex., he recognized the description and picture as possibly fitting that of a private assigned to the same detachment. He immediately consulted Sfc. R. L. Smedley, of the military police, Fort Sam Houston, who contacted the FBI.

An investigation was initiated and although the private first denied implication in the crime, after being confronted by the teller who was held up and who identified him, he admitted the violation.

In a letter addressed to Lt. Gen. I D. White, Fourth Army commander, Chiles wrote:

"I want you to know how much we in the FBI appreciate this outstanding work of Sgt. Felter and Sgt. Smedley whose prompt action has saved this bureau, as well as other law enforcement agencies in the area, countless investigative hours. The cooperation, alertness and assistance of men such as Sergeants Felter and Smedley make it possible for the FBI to carry out its responsibilities effectively."

Concordia Voters To Use Machines

FERRIDAY, June 25 (Special)—Concordia parish's new voting machines will take their first trip into the parish July 12 when one will be sent into each ward so that voters may familiarize themselves with the machine for the July 27 election.

Victor P. Campbell, clerk of court for the parish, said that voting machine demonstrations will be held at one place in each ward July 12-18. The machines will be set up with the names of the candidates in the coming election.

For the first time in the parish's history the familiar type of ballot will not be used. Instead a man from the office of the secretary of state in Baton Rouge will place the ballot directly on each machine.

Persons may call at any time during the week of July 12-18 at the place nearest him for a demonstration.

The machines will be placed in the following places: Ward one: Maxwell House, Mrs. Abner Maxwell; Murrah House, Mrs. Bill Dillinger; ward three, Deer Park, Mrs. R. A. Graham; ward four, C. M. Twin Cities Held To 3 Hits; Renew Rivalry Tonight

Maury Kelly, Greenville right-hander, got sweet revenge for the one - hit shutout administered by the Sports' Bill Halley to the Bucks Thursday night by blanking the Twin Cities on three hits last night as Greenville rebounded to take a 3-0 triumph that evened their series.

The two clubs conclude their current rivalry here tonight with Manager Ed Head calling on Len "Red" Strickler, winner of his last three starts, to go out and put the clincher on the series. Strickler, after struggling through his early shows for the Sports with a sore arm, has overcome the handicap and promises to be one of the better hurlers in the Cotton States League.

The Kelly masterpiece last night put a temporary roadblock on the current rise of the Sports who have won 11 of their last 16 games, but the Sports, after a rugged night with the bitter pills served up by Kelly, were promising the Bucks had better have their best on the hill tonight.

Although the Bucks tagged Twin Cities pitching for 11 hits last night, the blows were kept fairly well scattered except for two innings in which the Bucks scored their runs, and singles by Hal Martin were the most damaging blows to the Sports' cause.

Martin singled across Paul Griffith with the first run in the third inning after Griffith had beat out an infield hit and advanced on a single by Hugh Glaze Martin next drove across the second run when his single tallied Frank Shell in the eighth after the Buck catcher had beat a single behind third base and gained second when Chuck Forbes had trouble fielding the ball. A single by Al Benza then scored Martin to account for final Buck run.

Kelly, after serving up an infield hit to Frank Marinkovich in the second inning, had a one-hitter for seven and two-thirds innings until Sam Chetta doubled off the left field fence in the eighth and Jim Nissel followed with a single.

John Sullivan, the southpaw who hurled a one-hitter in his last home start was the victim of last night's attack. Dick Marshall, a portsider making his first appearance for the Sports, relieved in the eighth to finish the game.

A change is possible in the Twin Cities lineup tonight if Manager Ed Head chooses to see what a new infielder—Charlie Strain— looks like. Strain, a rookie coming to the Sports highly recommended by New York Yankee scouts, reported to the club last night too late to be in uniform He previously played for Modesto and Quincy, Ill.

Johnny Maroney Drives In Tying, Winning Tallies

By TED HECKATHORN

The Monroe American Legion Juniors, as against the Rayville nine two weeks ago, once again proved they are a "hot weather ballclub," as they handed once-beaten West Monroe a 5-3 loss yesterday afternoon on the Northeast diamond, with the clutch hitting of Johnny Maroney, Dickie Crowe and a perfect squeeze bunt by Don Clark responsible for all five of the home team's markers in the eighth inning.

Terry Reeves, who relieved southpaw Jim Altick — the Monroe starter, at the start of the eight, received credit for the win. West Monroe ace, Wayne Hendricks, who came on in the big Monroe frame, was charged with the loss.

Larry Reeves started the five-run frame for Woody Boyles' club with a single to left. He stole second, and sped home on Crowe's sharp single to center. That was all for Lavelle Browder, the Oneco's starter, who had scattered six hits and had a shutout going. Hendricks relieved, to fan Billy King for the first out. Spec Lewis and Jeff Spence hit clean singles off Wayne to load the sacks. Maroney, who already had singled in the fourth, dropped a Texas Leaguer behind short to clean the sacks and send the second, tying and winning Monroe tallies in. The towhead sped to second on the throw home, stole third, and scored a moment later himself with the insurance run on Clark's sacrifice squeeze bunt.

Loy Scarborough's boys looked like they might pull the game out of the ninth, when they loaded the sacks on singles by Browder, who went to right field after being relieved, and Robert Harris; and Dennis Fields' free base from being hit by a T. Reeves' pitch. But the big West Monroe sticks, Richard Mitchell and Chub Johnton, each of whom had hit safely twice previously, popped out to the infield; and Hendricks, a good hitter as well as a pitcher, lined to Crowe at second to end the game.

Harris, with a triple and two singles in five trips, was the leading hitter for the losers, and teammate Johnston hit the longest ball of the game, a sixth - inning triple over the Monroe rightfielder's head.

West Monroe counted their runs on an error and successive singles by Harris and Mitchell in the third; another error and Harris' triple in the fifth; and Johnston's triple and a single by Gary Huckabay in the sixth.

Johnson Billed Again For Shot At Moore Title

NEW YORK, June 25 (AP)—Light Heavyweight Champion Archie Moore will defend his title against Harold Johnson of Philadelphia in Madison Square Garden, Aug. 11, President Jim Norris of the International Boxing Club, said today. The bout will be telecast coast to coast over the CBS network but the New York area will be blacked out.

The two originally were signed for a July 14 15-rounder in San Francisco but the bout was called off because Moore required more time to make the 175-pound weight limit.

The 38-year-old Moore weighed 189¼ when he stopped heavyweight Bert Whitehurst in six rounds at New York's St. Nicholas Arena June 7.

Golfers Bill 'Dog Fight' At McGuire Park Monday

A unique "dog fight" tournament in which foursome teams of varying golf ability compete has been scheduled for McGuire Park Golf Club Monday afternoon, according to Leonard Warren, club pro, who figures the newest rage on the nation's golf courses will go over big in this area.

Competing teams will consist of one professional, an "A" player, a "B" player, and a "C". Every player's ball involved in the foursome will count on scoring, Warren pointed out, with a bogey counting one point, par two points, a birdie worth three, an eagle good for four, and a double eagle or a hole - in - one paying five points.

Any player shooting from scratch is invited to participate, Warren said. An "A" player will be any player shooting scratch to 80, "B" is classed from 80 to 90, and "C" is 90 up.

Contending pros will draw players of each class to make up his foursome.

"Dog fight tournaments are going over big elsewhere," Warren said, "and there's no reason why such events shouldn't prove attractive in our area as well. Pros and amateurs from our neighboring clubs of this area are invited to participate, and it's possible we can continue the events each Monday on a different course in this section."

Warren cited Tallulah, Ruston, Bastrop, Hodge, Bayou DeSiard of Monroe, and Municipal of Monroe as possibilities for rotating Monday "dog fights" for the area's golfers.

Players interested in participating in Monday's event at McGuire are invited to register with Warren at McGuire by telephoning 2-0696 not later than 11 o'clock Monday morning. Tee time will be noon to 1:30 Monday afternoon.

Bolt Shoots Fine Record-Tying 60 To Top Insurance

WETHERSFIELD, Conn., June 25 (AP)—Tommy Bolt, colorful Houston, Texan shot a spectacular 11-under par 60 today, equalling the National Professional Golfers Association competitive record, and zoomed in front with a two-round total of 131 as the $15,000 Insurance City Open reached the halfway mark.

Only four other pros playing in P. G. A. tourneys have posted a 60 round — Bill Nary, Reno, Nev.; Al Brosch, Cherry Valley, N. Y.; Ted Kroll, New Hartford, N. Y., and Wally Ulrich, Austin, Minn.

The first three accomplished the trick at the Breckenridge Park course in San Antonio, Tex., a par 71 layout. Ulrich scored at Virginia Beach, a par 69 courst.

Nary, Kroll, and Ulrich are competing here, too.

The 36 - year - old Bolt really worked over the par 35-36—71 6,561-yard Wethersfield Country Club layout, breaking the course record of 63 registered here last year in the P. G. A. qualifying round by Joe Moore, Jr., White Plains, N. Y. Tommy, who shot 71 yesterday, fired 11 birdies and needed only 24 putts.

A it turned out, Bolt, probably better known for his temper on the golf course — he frequently breaks clubs — than for his playing ability, barely missed a 59 when a 15-foot putt curved away from the cup.

The leaders:

Rain Knocks Out Full Day's Play In Tennis Event

WIMBLEDON, England, June 25. (AP)— An all - day drizzle forced Wimbledon officials to call off play today in the All - England Lawn Tennis Championships.

The authorities had all of the courts in this sprawling tennis plant covered this morning in the hopes of getting some matches played, but the rain continued and officials reluctantly announced the postponement at 5:30 p.m.

Since noon, a crowd of about 18,000 tennis addicts had waited patiently under umbrellas, under marquees and under the stands hoping for the rain to let up.

It was the first time in nine tournaments since World War II that rain washed out a whole day's play at the Wimbledon championships.

In 1950 a heavy downpour prevented any play until late in the evening, but half a dozen scheduled matches were finished on that occasion.

As the rain - soaked crowd trooped from the exits officials were working on rescheduling the matches for tomorrow.

The Columbia River is 1400 miles in length.

Jacoby On Bridge

Bridge Lesson

The bidding shown with today's hand never actually took place. The hand was actually played in the days of auction bridge, and South reached a contract of four spades doubled by bidding that would seem strange to contract bridge players.

The South player was one of the greatest bridge players of all time—Sidney S. Lentz. East happened to be a rather disagreeable and unskillful opponent, who got quite a lesson from this hand.

East won two diamond tricks to begin with, and then led the queen of clubs to Lenz's king. When the old master led out the ace and king of spades, East dropped the nine and jack, hoping that his illustrious opponent would be foolish enough to miscount the trumps.

"Glad to see the jack drop," Lenz remarked and he led the ace of clubs. East pounced on this trick with the seven of trumps and a cackle of joy.

East then led a heart, and Lenz won with the ace. Declarer could now lead the five of spades to dummy's six and cash the jack and ten of clubs in order to discard his low hearts. He thus made his doubled game contract.

East cackled loudly about how he had fooled the great expert. And it came as a great shock to him to learn that he himself had made the only error in the play of the cards.

If declarer draws three rounds of trumps, he must lose two hearts and two diamonds. Hence Lenz was quite correct in leaving one trump out.

Moreover, East would have fared better if he had refrained from ruffing the ace of clubs. If East simply discards on the trick, South may wriggle and squirm, but must still lose two hearts in addition to the two diamonds that were taken at the very beginning.

Syrup Maker's Louisiana Sales Ordered Halted

Distribution of "adulterated and mislabeled" syrup products of a Mississippi cane milling company was ordered ceased here Friday as a statewide directive was made public by the Louisiana Department of Public Health.

Dr. W. Carroll Summer, director for the Ouachita parish health unit, disclosed yesterday that Louisiana authorities have "revoked and cancelled" the registration of the Jones Cane Mill, Conchatta, Miss., as distributors in this state.

Summer quoted a directive issued by Cascius L. Clay, director for the Louisiana chemical and toxicological laboratories, which warned dealers in the state to refuse delivery of the Jones product. Clay reported that the Mississippi company has been "repeatedly warned not to ship any more of its products into Louisiana" and added that any such shipment is subject to state seizure and destruction.

The toxicologist said the product have been found to be both "adulterated and mislabeled". He did not list the label under which the syrup is sold.

The state order was relayed to Summer's office by Osborn Willis, regional sanitarian for northeast Louisiana.

Sing While You Drive

If you're going to do much driving this summer, you might read the following with care. It comes via Pat Best, one of the quartet called "The Four Tunes." Pat spotted a sign on the highway to Mexico, and copied it down. It goes like this:

Sing While You Drive

At 45 MPH — Highways Are the Happy Ways.

At 65 MPH — Nearer My God to Thee.

At 75 MPH — When the Roll Is Called Up Yonder, I'll Be There.

At 85 MPH—Lord, I'm Coming Home.

As is must to all men, a new job has come to Westbrook Van Voorhis. His face is unknown to you, but he has probably the best known voice in the entertainment world. For 23 years, Van Voorhis was the man who said, "The March of Time," on all Time's radio, TV and motion picture ventures.

But Time dropped movie shorts and temporarily has quit radio and TV. Van Voorhis says they felt the need to change their broadcast format completely.

"They asked me to stay under contract," he says, "and I did, for a while. But it was like a pension—getting paid but doing nothing. I couldn't stand that. So I left. It was all very pleasant, and when they come back—in six months or a year—I'll undoubtedly go back with them."

Meanwhile, he's lending his rich voice to "Justice" (NBC-TV). And, since he only has to appear in New York perhaps two days a week on this job, he's moved the Van Voorhis menage to a 27-acre farm near New Milford, Conn., in the glorious Berkshire foothills.

"I just keep a cold water flat in the city, in case I'm stuck late at night," he says. "But I love it on the farm. I've got a dozen sheep and I'm getting a dozen more. Sheep are the nicest people—they don't bother you, they just keep the grass short and go about their business without any fuss."

It's odd to hear that portentous voice talk about sheep but Van Voorhis, a tall, thin man with a nice smile and back mustache, puts as much vocal soul into "sheep" as he used to into his accounts of world tragedy.

Actually, he's content in his new assignment. "I'm happy as a lark," is the way he puts it.

Van Voorhis marches on.

Dick Barstow, the busy choreographer, is a Savoyard, which is what lovers of Gilbert and Sullivan operas call themselves. And he delves deep into the lives of his idols, too. In one such deep delve he came up with this story on Gilbert. The writer was approached by a society matron who gushed, "I love Bach. Is he still composing?"

"No," grunted Gilbert, "decomposing."

Concordia Jury Takes Action On Road Structure

Vidalia, June 25 (Special) — Fearful that the proposed control structure at Old River to prevent diversion of the Mississippi down the Atchafalaya might block the future development of Concordia parish in the southern direction, police jurors at Vidalia this week began action to get a road built over the proposed structure.

Jurors said that future plans called for a road on the west side of the Mississippi, which would considerably shorten the distance between north Louisiana and Baton Rouge and New Orleans. Motorists traveling this direction now must cross into Mississippi before crossing back into Louisiana.

The proposed Old River structure would seal up the southern end of Concordia parish unless a roadway is built over the structure. Jurors planned to ask New Orleans and Baton Rouge civic organizations to cooperate in seeking this road.

Herman Gibson, Clayton, was re-elected president of the police jury, and Abner Maxwell, Shaw, was named vice - president. Maxwell succeeds S. L. Winston, Lucerna to this position. Harry H. Meng, Jr., of Vidalia, was renamed as secretary - treasurer of the jury.

Building Permits

The following building permits have been issued by city building inspector S. H. Awl:

J. B. Hester, to move a one story frame office to 800 Arkansas street.

John Varino, to erect a one story frame parking lot office at 501 Washington street at a cost of $100.

An acre in an average vineyard contains 500 to 800 vines.

Death Penalty Confronting 3 Killers Of Cop

ELIZABETH, N. J., June 25 (AP)—Three men characterized as "a team of death and destruction" today were sentenced to die in the electric chair the week of July 25 for the holdup-slaying of an honor cop.

The death sentence wss mandatory for the Wise brothers, Albert, 23, and Harry, 21, both of Roselle, and Alfred Stokes, 21, of Elizabeth, since the jury that convicted them last night did not recommend mercy.

They were charged with shooting down Union Police Sgt. Clinton E. Bond last Feb. 12 during a $1,400 holdup of the Tuscan Dairy Farms, Union. Bond, a cop for 13 years who had been decorated for bravery, was slain as he tried to block their escape.

None of the defendants had anything to say before Union County Judge Milton A. Feller pronounced sentence.

Harry Wise appeared on the vergue of collapse, but Stokes, fingered by the others as the actual trigger man, maintained a devil-may-car air. Harry's wife, seated in the crowded courtroom, fainted and had to be carried out.

The Negro trio will be taken to the death house in Trenton State Prison Tuesday or Wednesday of next week. Defense attorneys said they would appeal.

Good Reason Why Boy's Mommy Kept Very Quiet

CHESTER, Pa., June 25 (AP)—Nine year-old Stephen McKain asked the telephone operator tearfully today to connect him with the police.

"My mommy is sick and won't talk to me," the boy complained to Capt. Edward McGuire.

McGuire sent Patrolman Joseph Vankoski to the McKain home. Vankoski found the child, in his pajamas, waiting at the front door.

"What's the matter with my mommy?" Stephen asked after leading Vankoski to a bedroom where Mrs. Catherine McKain, 48, lay motionless.

"Your mommy has left you. She has gone to Heaven and won't be back," Vankoski told him. He comforted the boy.

Dr. John Klopp, the family's physician said death came apparently from a heart attack.

The boy's father, Lt. Col. Herbert McKain, is a Methodist minister taking a two-week summer training course with a group of chaplains at Ft. Meade, Md.

Registration To Close Here Today

Deadline for registration to qualify for voting in the July 27 Democratic primary is 5 p.m. today, Mae Luckey, registrar, said yesterday.

Although the registrar's office normally closes at noon on Saturday, it will remain open until 5 p.m. today to accommodate late registrants, Miss Luckey said.

Hundreds of registrants have flocked to the office to register since the books were reopened on Wednesday following the recent tax election. The average has been about 200 per day, Miss Luckey said, but yesterday, registration topped the 300 mark.

Defense Money Bill For Nearly $29 Billion Goes To Ike For Signature

WASHINGTON, June 25 —UP— The Senate completed congressional action on a compromise $28,800,125,486 defense money bill Friday despite protests that it failed to protect low bidders on military contracts.

The measure, approved previously by the House, was passed by voice vote and sent to President Eisenhower for signature. It was drafted by a Joint House-Senate Conference committee after the two chambers passed differing versions.

The funds were requested by Mr. Eisenhower under his "new look" defense budget which puts increased emphasis on atomic and air power and less on ground forces. The bill also includes money to start work on two new atomic submarines, bringing the total to four.

The $28,800,125,486 was $115,875,000 more than was voted by the House, $416,981,000 below the Senate figure and $1,086,929,514 short of Mr. Eisenhower's original request last January. It is about $5.5 billion below this year.

The Air Force will receive the lion's share—$10,927,930,000, about $240 million less than this year. The Army will get $7,619,066,986, a slash of about $5.3 billion from this year. The Navy will receive $9,712,823,500, slightly more than this year.

Sen. John J. Williams (R-Del.) touched off a flurry of debate when he protested that the conference group eliminated a Senate provision that would have forced the armed forces to award military contracts to low bidders.

He cited one instance in which he said the Navy awarded a contract to a shipyard which missed the low bid by $8 million.

LONGER RIVER

The Missouri River is about twice the length of the upper Mississippi. Had it been discovered first, the Missouri probably would have been considered the principal source, with the present upper Mississippi as the tributary.

The heavy - set alligator gar, which may grow to be 15 feet long, is the largest freshwater fish of North America.

New York

NEW YORK, June 25 (AP) — Cotton futures closed 35 to 85 cents a bale higher today. Trading was active and featured wide price swings in old crop July futures. There were 79 July transferable notices issued at New York and 100 at New Orleans. An undetermined number of the notices at New York were still circulating at the close.

Liquidation dropped July 90 cents a bale under the previous in early dealings. Traders estimated something under 75,000 bales were liquidated today. This would bring the July open interest down to around 115,000 bales.

New crop months were generally firm on replacement buying against July selling. Distant October and December futures were strong on the possibility of further cotton acreage cuts in 1955.

Cotton Letter

NEW YORK, June 25. — Early liquidation, after issuance of notices, ruled in both markets. July New York declined to 33.42 and at times was selling 25 under October. Yesterdays open interest declined by 818 contracts in that month, and it was believed nearly that many were liquidated again today.

There were 79 notices in New York, 64 of which were believed issued for the account of a prominent North Carolina mill. Robert Moore stopped 30, Clayton stopped 18 and the remainder were unaccounted for.

Clayton issued 92 of the 100 regular notices in New Orleans today. McFadden stopped 55 and Clayton, 7. The blanace of the market held very well throughout the July easiness and speculative commission house buying in the afternoon caused new crop months to close 50 cents a bale higher.

McFadden sold new months on the close. The July contract rallied easily after the main pressure of the notices was dissipated on short covering and some new buying.

Unfixed call sales for the week ending June 18th decreased 2,800 bales, amounting to 763,200 vs. 647,400 a year ago. Call sales based on July were 138,800. Unfixed call purchases increased 1,700 bales for the week to 85,700 vs. 152,900 last year.

N. Y. C. E. reported exports today were 17,791 bales. So far this season exports have been 3,535,737 vs. 2,877,836 a year ago.

Texas A and M College reports some increase in pink bollworm infestation in lower Rio Grande Valley but infestations generally are light. This pest is also appearing in many fields in upper coastal areas as far north as McLennan county. Boll weevils are increasing in the lower valley and are migrating to other localities.

Infestations continue light in the coastal bend area but increases were noted in the southwest, upper coastal and south central areas. Injurious infestations were present in untreated fields in central and east Texas. Overwintered weevils are heavy in many untreated fields in east, central, north central and northeast areas.

Activity picked up in the print cloth section of the gray goods market late yesterday. Spot 80 squares sold at 19 cents for third and fourth quarter. There were reports that duck prices may be increased.

POULTRY

CHICAGO (AP) — (USDA) — Live poultry weak on hens; about steady on young stock; receipts 317 coops; f.o.b. paying prices unchanged to ½ lower; heavy hens 16-19; light hens 14.5-15; fryers or broilers 24-28, old roosters 14.5-15; caponettes 26-27.

Stocks Affected By Profit Taking; Trends Are Mixed

NEW YORK, June 25 (AP) — The stock market ran into moderate profit-taking today that cut back and early rally and turned the list highly irregular.

Prices in many instances lunged abruptly either way. That resulted in gains running to between 2 and 5 points and losses of 1 to 2 points in key areas.

Late in the day, oil shares weakended and the entire advance faltered. In closing phases of trading, Allied Chemical romped ahead 3 points at 92½, duPont gained 2 at 12, U. S. Gypsum was up 4½ at 162, Continental Oil fell 1⅞ at 66⅛, and Proctor & Gamble was down 1¼ at 85.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks was up the minimum of 10 cents at $127.30, a new high for the year and the best since Oct. 23, 1929.

The industrial average gained 30 cents at a new high of $172.80. The mixed nature in the market was shown by the drop of 10 cents in the railroad component and the unchanged utilities.

The market wasn't particularly broad with 1,174 individual issues traded of which 453 advanced and 423 declined, with 112 new highs for the year scored and 12 new lows registered.

Volume came to 2,060,000 shares as compared with 2,260,000 amassed yesterday with the market strong.

General Electric topped the most active list for the third straight day up ⅝ at 47⅝ on 55,100 shares.

The bond market was irregular. U. S. government issues in the over the counter market were easy.

Slated For Sunday

La. Masons To Visit Ft. Hill In Harrisonburg

HARRISONBURG, June 25. (Special)—Two thousand Master Masons from throughout Louisiana are expected here Sunday when the eighth annual open - air Masonic communication opens.

The affair, instituted as an annual program after its first performance is 1947, is to be conducted from atop old Fort Hill, historically known as Fort Beauregard, overlooking this village on the Ouachita River.

Three lodges will serve as hosts for this year's program, Harrisonburg No. 110, Keystone No. 213 of Sicily Island, and Four Rivers Lodge No. 369 of Jonesville.

Known all over the state of Louisiana, parts of Mississippi, Arkansas and Texas the uniqueness of the meeting can be seen in the attendance figures of the 1953 meeting when 1,488 masons gathered at the old fort with membership in 15 different states.

Fort Beauregard was erected in the early part of the Civil War. It was named for Pierre Gustave Toutant Beauregard who was born in St. Benard parish and resigned his commission in the U. S. Army, February 20, 1861 and was placed in command of Confederate forces at Charleston, S. C. Upon his orders the first shot of the Civil War was fied at 4:30 a.m. on April 12, 1861.

The fame of Fort Beauregard came in 1863 when four federal gun boats, the Pittshurgh, Arizona, General Price and Switzerland under command of Comm. Woodworth, ascended the Ouachita river. The shops anchored at Bushley Bayou, about one and a half miles below the fort, and demanded the surrender of the garrison, which was commanded by Lt. Col. George W. Logan. Captain T. O. Benton acted as spokesman for the Confederates and sent word back that the garrison would be defended at all hazards. The garrison consisted of some 400 men and the gun boats fired on the town and fort destroying one house and damaging others.

On September 4, 1863 the fort was captured by a land expedition from Natchez under the command of General Crocket. Col. Logan, having only 40 effective men, evacuated the fort saving all property that he could and destroying the remainder.

Clear records of the fight for Fort Beauregard are available to day of the daily transactions while the fort was under seige.

The village of Harrisonburg acquired the fort about 1930 and have recently purchased all the pine timber now standing, which comprises approximately 30 acres.

The Harrisonburg Lodge is 102 years old and in 1952 received a centennial plaque commemoratin 100 years of continuous good standing as a subordinate lodge of the Grand Lodge of Louisiana, F and A. M.

Both the host lodge and the scene for the eighth annual open air meeting date their records back to the colorful history.

As master masons of Louisiana gather there Sunday the scenery itself will duplicate history and the high alms of Masonry.

Walnut Street Lane Separator To Aid Traffic

Traffic problems will soon be simpler at one Monroe intersection. Street department crews Friday began installing a "lane separator" system at Walnut and Washington streets.

The divider, to be 100 feet in length, clearly defines two separate lanes for traffic and will allow southbound vehicles to continue through the red light in one lane without halting.

Traffic in the lane nearest the west curb will be permitted to "run the red light" at slow speeds without the danger of being struck by automobiles turning south off Washington.

The other lane on the west side of the street will stop at the red light, but can proceed southward on green or turn onto Washington on green.

According to a traffic department spokesman, the separator divides the southbound traffic as it nears the intersection and feeds them back into the regular traffic lanes at the south end of the separator, a good distance from the intersection.

This will do away with the necessity of having all of the southbound traffic tied up at the intersection when the even flow of traffic could be aided by not stopping for vehicles making a left turn.

The spokesman said the new system will probably go into effect next week.

Russian Delegate 'Not A Gentleman' He Informs UN

UNITED NATIONS, June 25—UP—Russian delegate Semyon K. Tarapkin told the United Nations Security Council Friday that "I am not a gentleman, I am the representative of the Soviet Union."

The remark came after Tsarapkin asked for the floor in the midst of a sharp exchange with U.S. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge Jr., council president for June. Lodge, 13 years a U.S. senator, lapsed into senatorial usage and inquired:

"For what reason does the gentleman wish to be recognized?"

"I am not a gentleman; I am the representative of the Soviet Union," Tsarapkin said sharply.

Washington To Decide Whether To Prosecute In Ax-Fire Slayings

BONN, June 25—UP—U. S. authorities Friday passed to Washington the responsibility for deciding whether to prosecute a former captain on charges of murdering three fellow Army officers with ax and fire just after World War II.

The U. S. High Commission dispatched to the State Department the bulky files on James M. Leech, now a boilermaker in Lima, Ohio. He is accused of triple murder on Jan. 7, 1946 at Passau, Germany.

The commission made no specific recommendation, but suggested that the case be referred to the Justice Department for a decision whether Leech should be arrested and extradited to Germany for trial.

Leech was charged with three counts of murder, three of intentional manslaughter, and one of fatal arson last May 21. Each count carries a maximum penalty of life imprisonment.

The charges were filed by William D. Canfield, then U. S. deputy chief prosecutor in Germany. He since has retired to private law practice in the United States.

Canfield said Leech was responsible for the slaying of the three officers in the requesitioned villa on the bank of the Danube in the hectic post-war period.

They were Maj. Everett F. Cofran of Seattle, Wash., Capt. Adrian L. Wessler of New Rochelle, N.Y., and Lt. Stanley A. Rosewater of Omaha, Neb.

All three were axed, drenched with gasoline and set afire in the villa where they were sleeping. Leech was questioned by army investigators at the time, but released. He returned to the United States and received an honorable discharge.

Kiwanis Club In Winnfield Given Charter

WINNFIELD, June 25. (Special)—That Winnfield is consistently assuming city status was further accentuated Tuesday, June 22, when the Winnfield Kiwanis club completed its organization and was granted a charter with 30 or more charter members.

The Winnfield Club was co-sponsored by the West Monroe and Natchitoches Clubs. The organizational meeting was attended by Hugh Balfour, president West Monroe club, and Jack Fisher, president Natchitoches club, as well as a delegation of members from each club. Also present and conducting the organization proceedings were Don Weil, district lieutenant governor, Monroe, and Warren Kimsey, field representative, Chicago, Ill.

W. D. "Bill" Montgomery was elected president, Puckett Willis, vice - president, and Roland Rogers, secretary - treasurer, along with the following board of directors:

Stanley Smith, Sikes, La.; J. P. Gresham, Atlanta, La.; Johnnie Brister, Winnfield; Ray P. Eagles, Winnfield; Norman Smith, Winnfield, Leonard Willis, Winnfield; Marvin Wyatt, Winnfield. Also named were chairmen of various objectives committees, who will be notified at the first luncheon meeting June 29 from 12:05 until 1:05 p.m. at the Goat Castle on LaFayette Street.

NO RESERVATION LIFE

Following the last Seminole Indian war, most of these Indians were exiled to Oklahoma by the United States government. Some escaped into the Everyglads of Florida, where descendants of the band are living today.
